Section 231 of the Crime Control Act of 1990, Public Law 101-647, requires that employment applications for Federal Child care positions contain a question asking whether the individual has ever been arrested for or charged with a crime involving a child and for the disposition of the arrest or charge.

Section 408 of the Miscellaneous Indian Legislation, Public Law 101-630, requires a criminal record check for positions in the Department of Health and Human Services that involve regular contact with or control over Indian Children. The agency must ensure that persons hired for these positions have not been found guilty of or pleaded nolo contendere to violent crimes.

To assure compliance with the above laws, the following questions are added to the Declaration for Federal Employment.

- 1) Have you ever been arrested for or charged with a crime involving a child? YES _____ NO _____
[If YES, provide date, explanation of the violation, disposition of the arrest or charge, place of occurrence, and the name and address of the police department or current court involved.]

- 2) Have you ever been found guilty of, or entered in a plea of nolo contendere (no contest) or guilty to, any felonious or misdemeanor offense under Federal, State, or Tribal law involving crimes of violence, sexual assault, molestation, contact or prostitution, or crimes against persons? YES _____ NO _____
[If YES, provide date, explanation of the violence, description of the arrest or charge, place of occurrence, and the name and address of the police department or court involved.]

I certify that (1) my response to these questions is made under penalty of perjury, which is punishable by fines of up to $2,000 or 5 years imprisonment, or both; and (2) I have received notice that a criminal check will be conducted. I understand my right to obtain a copy of any criminal history report made available to the Indian Health Service and my right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in the report.
